The Song of the Teacher.

[The following parody of the "Song of the Ship" was prepared by Miss Katie Ship, and read before the Franklin County Teacher's Association July 25th, 1885.]

With brain that is weary and worn,
With eyelids heavy and red,
The teacher sat in her usual place,
Hearing each lesson read;
Read, read, read,
As the heat and cold both reach her,
While still with a wail a teacher's heart,
She sang the song of the teacher.

Teach, teach, teach,
When the wind is blowing aloof,
And teach, teach, teach,
While the sun shines on the roof;
Teach, teach, teach,
Along with the carousing Turk,
If the pearls of knowledge we'd save,
But this is woman's work.

Teach, teach, teach,
Till the brain begins to swim;
Teach, teach, teach,
Till the eyes are heavy and dim,
Through wind and rain and heat,
Through storm of hail and snow,
She must ever go on her heart's beat,
And so just to friend and foe.

Oh men with children wild,
And men with selfish wives,
It is not only boys you're wearing out,
But I, faithful teacher's lives.
We teach, teach, teach,
From Monday till Friday night,
Teaching at once with an earnest heart,
The good as well as the right.

Then why do we blame the boys
For playing the truant's game,
When we know it's their parents' fault,
We overlook their shame,
We overlook their shame,
Because of the company they keep.
O God, that know I am not a saint,
And ignorance around so cheap.

Work, work, work,
From weary chime to chime,
Work to and to and to,
As prisoners work for crime.
Write and read and spell and write,
Spell and lead and write,
Till the head is sick and the brain beams,
And the body worn out quite.

For teachers work in earnest,
In the dull December light,
As well as in the sunshine,
When the weather is warm and bright.
While underneath the weary heart,
The quiet pebbles sleep,
As if to show the quiet sleep,
For those who often weep.

Oh, but to see a're long
The teacher's work well paid,
Her noble mission understood,
And perfection in every grade,
Oh, but for one short hour,
To feel she's gained her goal,
And brought these children about her,
To the bright and sunny fold.

Oh, but for one short hour
To show that all her aim
Is not for gold or riches,
Nor honor to her name,
But to lead the childish footsteps
Of those who need her care,
To the Almighty God above us,
And find her honor there.

The Odd Fellows of this city contemplate having an entertainment for their benefit at Opera House about the first of September, under the supervision of Prof. Wayland Graham. It will be a grand affair, in which more than sixty ladies and gentlemen of this city will appear.

John B. Dorris' Great Inter-Ocean Circus will exhibit here on the 24th of September. The tent will be pitched on the vacant lot on Holmes street immediately in the rear of the Penitentiary, next Luckett's livery stable.

The charming little actress, Lizzie Evans, will open the theatrical season at the Opera House on Tuesday evening next. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says of her:

Lizzie Evans, one of the brightest and cutest of songstresses, opened at the Peoples last night in "Deudrop." Miss Evans has everything to recommend her, and the play is an interesting story. Some of the scenes are very entertaining, and the stage settings excite unbounded admiration. The petite star is winning in all she attempts. She sings well and dances gracefully. Her voice is clear and musical, and she is surprisingly effective in the dramatic passages of the play. There are no better actresses in the peculiar school she represents than Miss Evans, and at every appearance she wins new friends.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy for the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free Trial Bottles of this Standard Remedy at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store.

Memorial Meeting.

Parasent to call the colored citizens of Frankfort met in the A. M. E. Church, Aug. 7th, at 8 p. m., to express their sentiments at the death of General U. S. Grant.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. Thomas, pastor A. M. E. Church. Prayer by Rev. Henry Samuels. Singing by a voluntary choir and the congregation.

Remarks were made by Dr. Thomas explaining the object of the meeting. After which the following officers of the meeting were elected:

President, Dr. Thomas; 1st Vice, B. H. Higdon; 2d Vice, N. B. Greenup; Secretary, Edward Yeizer; Assistant Secretary, Horace Brady; Committee on Resolution, Rev. Henry Samuels, M. C. Johnson, Fred. B. Blanton, Robert Todd, and Rev. J. Allen Ross.

Addresses were delivered by Miss Mary Smith, John H. Thomas, Frederic Blanton, M. C. Johnson, L. L. Clarke, Robert Todd and Rev. J. A. Ross.

Appropriate resolutions were presented, read and adopted by a standing vote. A copy of which were ordered to be sent to General Grant's family.

The proceeding of the meeting was beautifully interspersed with music by the choir composed of Miss F. Yeizer, Miss L. Mack, Miss M. Yeizer and Mr. L. L. Clarke. Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

FRANKFORT, AUGUST 15, 1885.

The Big Blaze.

About one o'clock Monday morning one of the handsomest blocks of business houses in the city, in which was located the dry goods and clothing house of Mr. Sol Harris the millinery and dressmaking establishment of Mrs. A. Harris, Messrs. E. H. Taylor, Jr., Co's office, the saloon of Mr. Jas. Sower and the confectionery of Messrs. Sower & Ahler, was destroyed by fire. At twenty minutes after one the alarm was given and almost immediately flames burst out the rear of the dry goods store of Mr. Sol. Harris and lit up the heavens so brilliantly that many persons two far away to locate it thought it certainly must be a lively stable. The flames communicated so quickly to the Sower building that the musquito bar around the bed of Mr. Jas Sower's little boy was on fire when the family were awakened and they were compelled to leave as speedily as possible.

The Fire Department were promptly at work and but for their heroic efforts the flames would have done much greater destruction. There was no wind blowing at the time, but notwithstanding the building of Mrs. A. Duval and the Yeoman office on the South, and Messrs. J. L. & W. H. Waggoner on the East, were in great danger of taking fire so great was the heat. A little after two o'clock the walls of the Harris building fell in and then the fire was gotten under control.

The roof of the Sower building was burnt off and the interior completely ruined, though the walls are damaged but little, and the building can soon be put in good repair.

The stock of goods in all the stores were nearly all destroyed, as were also the handsome office fixtures of Messrs. E. H. Taylor, Sr., Co. The books of the latter firm were all in their fire-proof vault and were taken out at right the next morning. Mr. Harris had a lot of valuable papers and a small amount of money in an iron safe of the Mosler make which came out of the fire all right, only being a little blackened by the smoke. Messrs. Taylor, Jr., Co., also had a lot of insurance policies and other papers in a Hall safe which came out in like good condition.

A person can form but little idea of the fight that had to be made to save the Sower building from a similar fate to that of the Harris block unless he takes a look at the rear of it. There is but little doubt that the buildings were set fire to, but no positive proof can be obtained against any one, though the adjusters of the various insurance companies interested are on the ground and are trying to investigate the matter thoroughly.

Following are the losses and insurance:

VALUE.	INSURANCE.
Sol Harris' building ..$16,000	$11,500
Same, stock, fixtures, furniture, etc. 20,000	18,100
Sower & Ahler, stock, etc. 4,500	3,200
Henry Ahler, furniture 400	500
Peter Sower, building, 10,000	5,000
Jas. T. Sower, furniture 600	500
E. H. Taylor Jr., Co's office fixtures..... 3,500	2,000
Total.....$84,000	$40,700

On account of falling health, Dan. Meagher offers his farm for sale.

The Castellan Light Artillery of Lexington, was ordered into active service at Morehead the first of the week, and now Capt. Jack Veach is happy.

Any person who wants to buy a nice farm should not fail to attend Dan. Meagher's sale on Saturday, 20th of August. He will also sell a lot of cattle, horses, hogs and farming implements, and upon easy terms.

A call has been made upon Mr. Dan. Meagher, Jr., to become a candidate for Constable in this district, signed by two hundred and eight voters, besides that other fellow, "And Many Others." Now if every fellow who signed the paper will vote as he "calls" Dan. will have but little trouble in getting there.

On the 28th of this month Squire W. B. Tracy, of this county, will be attacked with hay fever and will be confined to bed for three weeks. For twenty odd years he has been attacked on the same day and has gone through the same siege for the same length of time.

The Franklin Baptist Association will meet with the Church at Cedar, Owen county, on Tuesday. The Steamer Grace Morris will leave the Lock below this city Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock for Cedar Lock, and will carry all who may wish to attend for $1.50 the round trip. Returning she will leave Cedar on Wednesday afternoon.

The engineers in charge of the river were compelled to stop drawing the water from this pool on account of its interfering with the building of dam No. 5. A temporary dam is being constructed at Clifton to hold the water up at No. 5, and when that is completed the gates at No. 4 will be again opened and the water drawn down sufficiently low to enable the workmen to stop the leaks at No. 4 and resheet the dam.

Mr. A. W. Cromwell has purchased from the Standard Manufacturing Company one of their machines for the manufacture of the Standard Fence, which is one of the cheapest and most durable fences made anywhere, being a combination of the wire and picket fences. Wooden slats are woven into annealed steel wire so as to form a picket fence that can be made either portable or stationary. It costs but seventy-five cents a rod and is far less dangerous to stock than the barbed wire. Mr. Cromwell has a rod of it on exhibition in the Court House yard, where farmers should go and examine it and then give him an order for a good long string of it.

Personal.

Mr. John Todd left Tuesday night for Winchester to reside.

Miss Belle Sanders left Monday for a visit to Blue Lick Springs.

Mr. Jos. P. Bohannon, after a lingering illness of several months with spinal meningitis, died at the residence of his mother, in South Frankfort, Monday morning about 11 o'clock, aged 24. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon from the Methodist Church. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss.

A burglar entered the residence of Mr. L. A. Thomas Sunday morning by unlocking a back door with a false key, and made his way into an upper room occupied by Mrs. Thomas and Miss Mannie Powell. In the darkness he passed his hand over the face of Miss Powell which awakened her, and she sprang out of bed, gave the alarm and struck a light, when the rascal beat a hasty retreat. It was too dark for Miss Powell to distinguish his features or tell whether he was white or black.

Miss Nannie Browder, of this city, is visiting friends in Bridgeport, and together with Mr. Ben. G. Mr. Henry Ahler was badly hurt Monday afternoon, while standing in front of his establishment, by a sheet of galvanized iron which had been melted loose from the cornice of the building by the fire of the night before falling on his head.

A little fellow, in speaking of the party of young people and their chaperones who went down to Drennon several weeks ago, said there were twenty-five girls and boys besides the shamponers.

Mr. Wilson, an employe at Messrs. W. J. Hughes & Co's saw-mill, was so unfortunate as to put his right hand too near the edge saw yesterday morning, and had his thumb, forefinger and little finger badly lacerated. The forefinger is so badly hurt that amputation will probably be necessary.

Rose Coleman, a colored boy about 14 years of age, while cutting oats at Messrs. Mangan & Darnell's livery stable yesterday morning, got his right hand caught in the forty-blade knife cutting box he was using and had his fingers so badly chapped up that they had to be all taken off at the knuckles. Drs. Brown and Smith performed the operation.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Bridgeport.

Sweet potatoes not extra.
Last Sunday was the hottest day.
The recent dry weather cut the veg crop short.

Messrs. W. F. and J. B. Russell have been in Louisville this week.
Born—Aug. 8, 1885, to Mr. Church Vaughn and wife—a daughter.

Mrs. Hilda Fultz, of Louisville, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Mattie Jenkins.
Mr. Tom Pouch and wife, of Louisville, are visiting friends near this place.

The contract for the erection of a school-house has been awarded Mr. Kendrick Wade—at last.

Mrs. Mary Flinnell and daughter, Mrs. Florence Rogers, are visiting the family of Mr. Wm. G. Sargent.

Joe J. Parent and family and Miss Sammie Crockett are visiting his brother, J. K. Parent and family, in Shelby county this week.

Miss Anna Belle Crockett is unable to leave her room in consequence of being afflicted with poison oak. Her sufferings are very severe.

Miss Sallie Miller, who for many years was a member of the family of the late Churchill Bailly, will reside with her sister, Mrs. Emily Parent, in the future.

Quite a large crowd attended the sale of Mr. Churchill Bailly, deceased, last Saturday. Most of the articles offered brought good prices. Col. D. A. Peters auctioneer.

Another conflagration visited our town last Wednesday morning about one o'clock, destroying the store of Mr. W. P. Russell. The fire was so far advanced as to preclude the saving of anything, but through the heroic efforts of the citizens further damage was prevented.

What a man's political proclivities have to do with the office of County School Superintendent is the question now agitating the mind of numbers whose interest is materially affected in the matter. We might as well extend at length on this subject, but presuming that a word to the wise is sufficient for further comment.

Bald Knob.

Bro. Graves preached at this place last Sunday.
Miss Janie Feyton is visiting at Polsgrove Landing this week.

Mr. Henry Rodgers and family will start for Madison, Ind., today.

Squire John Hamilton, of Benson, was in this vicinity last Friday.

Mrs. Emma Baxter, of Midway, is visiting her daughter, Mary Jane Lee.

Messrs. Wash Green and John T. Lee made a trip to Louisville this week.

Dr. Robinson visited Dr. J. F. Adams, of Jacksonville, last Friday night.

School opened at this place last Tuesday with S. A. Hulet as teacher.

Mr. W. R. Clarke is having one hundred panels of fence put up on his farm.

Protracted services have been carried on at Mt. Carmel, this county, this week.

Rev. J. A. Peters will preach at Bald Knob school-house the second Sunday in this month.

A large crowd met at Lebanon Church last Friday evening and cleaned the grave yard very nicely.

Subscribe for the Roundabout and Truthful Witness, two daisy papers for a little more than the price of one.

Mr. Nicholas Allison and wife and W. T. Warren, of Shelby county, visited relatives at this place this week.

Mr. Thos. Nash and family visited our next jailer, Jammie D. Moore, of Belle Point, last Saturday and Sunday.

A shooting scrape occurred at Jacksonville, Shelby county, last Monday between Newt. Hazlett and Joe Thurman.

At a picnic in Henry county last Thursday week, Mammie Thompson shot and severely wounded John Warner.

The election passed off quietly at this place. Not a drunken man in the crowd. The following is the vote: Tate, 219; Fox, 3; McKee, 201; Branner, 21; Major, 220; B. F. Smith, 14; N. B. Smith, 245; B. C. Steele, 8; Light vote cast.

Farmers and Mechanics.

Save money and doctors' bills. Relieve your mothers, wives and sisters like a timely physician. Dr. Boockale's Cough and Lung Syrup, best known remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Bronchial affections. Relieves Children of croup in one night, may save you hundreds of dollars. Price 50 cts. and $1.00. Samples free. Sold by Hughes & Chiles.

Belle Point.

Miss Laura Branson, who has been so ill, has about recovered.

Hon. R. E. Gaines was elected Judge by a unanimous vote.

Jacob Cox was elected town marshal without opposition.

Judge W. L. Pence has not decided yet to rebuild his Champion Saw-mill.

Hon. J. A. Violette has been elected town attorney for the ensuing year.

John Wilson is building a very comfortable looking cottage on Hill street.

Miss Jennie Quinn, of Scott county, has been on a visit to Mrs. Judge Pence.

Mrs. J. B. Burnham, nee Miss Maggie Denison, of Louisville, has been on a visit to Miss Urie Marshall.

The Messrs. Minor, of St. Joseph, Mo., who have been visiting Mrs. Judge Pence, have left to visit other relatives Shelby county.

The pretty and fascinating Miss Jennie Denison, who has been visiting Urie Marshall, returned to her home in Louisville on Monday last.

What is Belle Point going to do about a school? At present the prospect seems mighty slim. No school-house, is the cry. Why don't those interested make an effort to remedy this trouble? The trustees are certainly very dilettant in their duty to neglect this business.

Alas for poor Belle Point, with half a mile of Benson creek running through her borders and not a citizen is permitted to approach her banks, no, not even to water a horse. Wonder how long it will be before we are cut off from the Kentucky river, it seems not long. Enterprise and progress have folded their wings.

I have not seen a notice of our big election over here. High taxes on one side and low taxes on the other. I tell you we are hot. Low taxes rather than high taxes. The candidates were Col. F. P. Lewis, Clinton Sullivan, C. P. Nickols, John Crutcher, J. Deakin, Nat. McDaniel, R. Grinstead and Wm. B. Hammond. The five first named were successful in getting in. Hurrah!

"NICK."

Antioch.

Last Sunday was our hottest day.
Mrs. William Polsgrove is on the sick list this week.

We were absent last week, therefore there was no letter from Antioch.

Mrs. Sallie Snellon, of Tiger, has been lying very sick at her sister's, Mrs. T. J. Tracy.

Mrs. Emma Hawkins, of Owen, was up the first of the week visiting her father's family, Mr. George Roache.

Mrs. Sandy Pence, of Belle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, of Grassy Spring, and Mr. Job Smith, of Bloomington, were at Antioch last Sunday.

Master Ernest Shackelford returned home to Winchester last Saturday week, after a visit of several months to his grandfather, Mr. James Glone.

Mrs. James Glone and daughter, Miss Mary Lee, Mrs. S. E. Stivers, Miss Agnes and Master Floyd Stivers spent last week in Winchester visiting relatives.

The survey of the "Little Dave pike" took place last week, and as usual there are some to kick at it. All want the pike, but put it on some other person's place, not on mine.

We wish to say to "Old Rusty" that we are not willing to accept proposition as stated, but let some disinterested party question both boys. There is a little three-year-old girl here who is in the same length of time (of posting) that Willie has had will equal if not exceed him.

Our school opened last Monday with Miss Sallie Robinson, of Frankfort, as teacher. We hope the parents will see to it that their children are regular in their attendance, and do all they can to encourage their teacher, if they want the school to be a success. Miss Robinson is an educated, refined young lady, deserves, and should have, the encouragement of all the district.

Hon. J. G. Parks' Testimony.

I cheerfully state that in my opinion Swift's Specific is a most excellent tonic. In the month of September, 1883, my health failed by reason of overwork while attending the State Legislature. I was at length induced to try Swift's Specific and was greatly benefited. When I began using it I could scarcely take a step, but after I had finished the seventh bottle I realized that Swift's Specific had contributed in a large degree to my gradual restoration to health and strength. I have also used S. S. S. in my family with satisfactory results, giving it to one of my children this spring. The little one's appetite, strength and general health were perfected from the use of S. S. S. JAMES G. PARKS, Dawson Ga., May 22, 1885.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.
